rived from conceptual discussions, case studies, or aggregate analyses of organizations. Manuscripts should be between 15 and 25 pages. Proposals submitted by practitioners are especially welcome. Two page proposals and inquiries should be submitted by April 15, 1977 and be addressed to: Charles H. Levine, Symposium Editor, The Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY 13210.

TRAVEL AND TEACH

University of Maryland University College seeks lecturers for its European and Far East divisions which offer undergraduate courses to United States military personnel. D.B.A., Ph.D., A.B.C. or two M.A.'s and recent classroom experience required. Preference to those who can teach a range of undergraduate business courses and a few courses in a related discipline. Evidence of teaching excellence helpful when applying. Those with families please note: these positions require frequent travel (often every two months) sometimes across national borders; neither housing nor housing allowance provided; schools for dependent children are difficult to arrange. United States citizens only, one year appointments—those on sabbatical leave of absence welcome. Write sending resume to: The Dean, University of Maryland University College, University Boulevard at Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20742.

ERRATA

ASQ, 21, no. 3: 363–375 "Single-Loop and Double-Loop Models in Research on Decision Making" by Chris Argyris should contain this additional reference:

Argyris, Chris, and Donald Schon
1974 Theory in Practice. San Francisco: Jossey-Bass.

ASQ, 21, no. 3: 474–488, "Experimental Evaluation of Five Designs of Redundant Organizational Systems," by Dan S. Felsenthal and Eliezer Fuchs had several printer's errors. Please note these corrections.

Table 1, page 480: The number in the third column, second line should be 6 — not 16.

Page 481, third paragraph, second sentence should read as follows:

The proportion of correct answers for at least plurality is .368 (46/125) which differs significantly from the proportion of correct answers for complete disagreement, .078 (22/282), ($Z=6.30$).

Page 483, second paragraph, sixth line: The reference should be (p. 481) — not (p. 13).
